Topic 10:

Unit 5 Dependent prepositions

Speaking: Opinions on violence

Dependent prepositions are the ones which belong to verbs, adjectives, or nouns. They don't form a new phrase, and they are often not translated into other languages or used differently in them.

Dependent prepositions

- Certain verbs depend on a specific preposition in a particular context.
- For example, you can
- object to (something),
- participate in (something),
- complain about(something).

- These are called dependent prepositions.
